1. Micheal Ledeen called to speak to you this morning, which he termed a "Flash" for you "to pass to Dewey". I expected you were out of town until Tues. night, but I was your chief of staff - could I help? He hesitated for some long moments, then said no, he'd get the message to Dewey another way.

2. Dewey is on TDY all week, so surprisingly Ledeen called back about an hour later ("This is Mike, again"), wanting me to pass a message to Dewey. The message was as follows:

[REDACTED] is flying [REDACTED] to Frankfurt today [REDACTED] He will be having dinner in Frankfurt with at least two other men who arrived there yesterday [REDACTED] One of these guys is [REDACTED]
 [REDACTED] I don't know who the other one is. There may be more at the dinner, but there will be at least these two."

3. I went down to EUR and talked to the Dep. Chief, who said Dewey was handling everything involved with this [REDACTED]

So I called [REDACTED] DESK OFFICER

OFFICER

4. It took [REDACTED] a while to get back to me, but when he did, he seemed a bit confused. He did not know who [REDACTED] but said he would find out and handle all this with the first. We agreed that we/he would have to move fast, because by then we were down to a window of only a couple of hours. I'll call [REDACTED] tomorrow to see what--if anything--occurred.
